

ANNOUNCEMENTS

IF YOU'RE NEW TO THE CHURCH, please stop by the Welcoming Table in Eliot Hall during the coffee hour. Members of the Welcoming Committee will be available to answer your questions, and literature is also available.

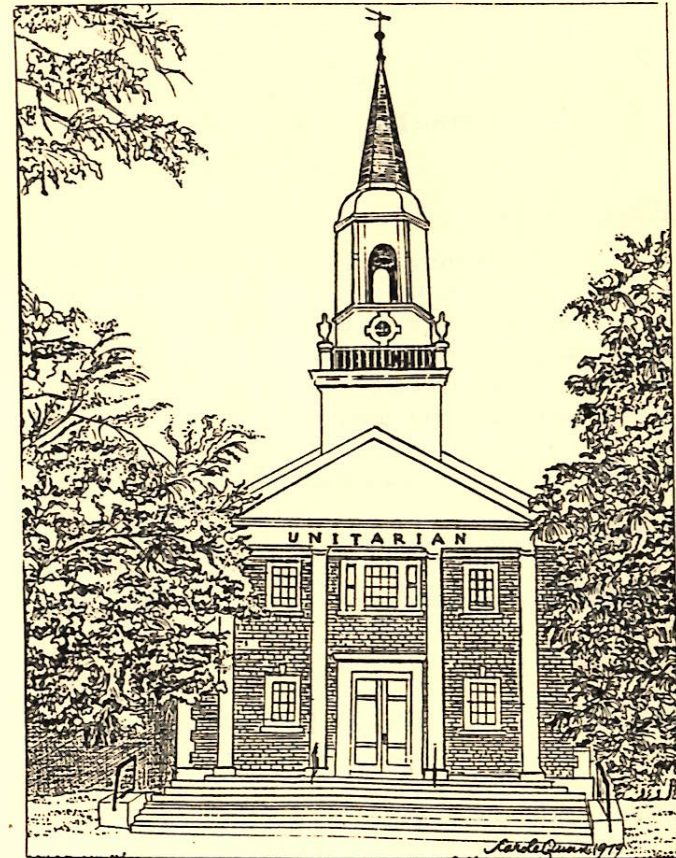

FOOD COUPONS for both Smith's and Harmon's are on sale every Sunday during the coffee hour. Buying these coupons on a regular basis is a painless way for you to give added financial support to the church. The coupons, which are available in $10 and $20 denominations, are good at the store at their face value; yet 5% of what you spend goes directly to the church.

TODAY IS YOUR LAST CHANCE to make a contribution to the church auction - "For Love or Money" - taking place the evening of February 12, 1994. Services, outdoor adventures, gourmet meals, home-cooked delicacies, and arts and crafts are all great auction items. To make your donation to our biggest fundraiser, see Judie Greenhalgh in Eliot Hall after the service, or contact her at 272-5879.

THE SOCIAL ACTION FORUM (formerly CCC) will be held next Sunday, January 16, at 9:00 a.m. in Eliot Hall. Miles Jacoby, the Executive Director of Salt Lake Valley Habitat for Humanity, will discuss his plans and dreams for expanding Habitat's activities during 1994. Come for breakfast, and dialogue with Miles. Coffee and bagels with cream cheese will be served. This is our opportunity to gain a fuller understanding of the role Habitat plays in meeting the crises of low-income housing in this area!

THE SECOND ANNUAL EDWIN H. WILSON LECTURE ON HUMANISM, sponsored by the Humanists of Utah, will be presented on Thursday, January 13, at 7:30 p.m. in our chapel. Dr. James L. Jarrett, author of several books, including Contemporary Philosophy, will speak on the topic: "Our Human Goal."

TICKETS FOR THE ANNUAL MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY LUNCHEON, sponsored by the NAACP, will be available during the coffee hour today and next Sunday from Bill and Mary Schultz and David Blackbird. The luncheon will be held at Little America Hotel on Monday, January 17, at 12:00 noon. The cost is $30.
